Schedule

Check in and start times will be published after 11th April.

You must be on piste 10 minutes before start time. Check in is automatic after you have your accreditation i.e. not a process on the day you will be fencing.

Accreditation

The accreditation and welcome desk will be open:

- From Tuesday 16 May until Saturday 20 May from 7:00 until 18:00.
- On Sunday 21 May from 07:00 until 12:00.

Equipment control

Weapon control will be open every day from Tuesday 16 May until Saturday 20 May from 8:00 until 18:00.

You must have presented equipment to weapon control no later than 5:00 pm (17:00) the day before the event. Equipment will be returned by 18:00 at the latest.

On the event website, there is a weapon control sheet. Please print and complete, to be handed in with your equipment.

Please refer to the website:

Information on equipment control - EUROPEAN VETERANS FENCING \(europeanveteransfencing-thionville2023.eu\). There is a link for the control sheet: control sheet.

Minimum no of weapons and body wires is on piste is 2 of each.

Please note it is compulsory to have your SURNAME (and) GBR printed on the back of epee jacket and foil and sabre lamés. National logo (GBR leg and arm patches) is recommended but not compulsory.

GBR patches are available from Leon Paul:

Shuttle buses (Thionville/Yutz partner hotel– Sports Complex)

If you have booked accommodation in a partner hotel in Thionville/Yutz, a dedicated bus line, free of charge, will be operational during the Championships (from Wednesday 17th until Sunday 21st), to transport you and accompanying persons to the sports complex and back to your hotel. At the busiest times, referees and competitors on the day of their event will be given priority to access this service.

Provisional time schedules are published on the event website; final time schedules will be published once the start time of each competition is known.
